

Welcome to Rarity Club News!

Rarity Club is only 20 minutes west of Chattanooga, Tenn. Chattanooga, called the Scenic City, is considered one of the nation's most livable cities. When you visit and explore Chattanooga, you will immediately discover why. The Tennessee River and Cumberland Mountains provide a beautifully-peaceful backdrop. They also offer great recreational opportunities and the chance to witness the natural beauty of East Tennessee.

Chattanooga is home to the Tennessee Aquarium, Incline Railway, The Hunter Art Museum, the historic NorthShore dining and shopping district and the Chattanooga Choo Choo, just to name a few attractions. With countless fine dining and shopping venues, the city provides residents and visitors a diverse experience set among the natural beauty and warmth of East Tennessee. Historic Lookout Mountain overlooks Chattanooga and the Tennessee River.

New Aquarium boat docks in Chattanooga! Read all about it here.

MSN Money - The New Hot Retirement Spots

For the latest generation of high-energy retirees, Tennessee is among the many new Floridas. But some choose to leave a permanent address behind altogether.

View the article